

One customer can have multiple tickets and multiple concessions purchases. Each movie sells multiple tickets. Customer must be connected to both concessions and tickets because they both reference the `customer_id` as a foreign key. Movie does not need to connect to concessions because concessions purchases are associated to a customer id, not a movie id